

: phrasal verbs

- to apply for ( a job) : make a request .
- to turn down ( a request) : to reject it.
- to filling : to complete an application / a form
- to find out : to discover and learn about
- to pick up ( a language) : to learn it without difficulty
- to look forward to...ing : eagerly expecting
- to hand out : distribute
- to get down : to write
- to look up : to search in the dictionary
- to put up with : to tolerate and have o good relationship

- dress up }
- Put on } Wear clothes
- put on = switch on
- take off for a plane = to leave ground
- put off = delay – postpone
- eat out (on a restaurant)
- to write down = to copy
- to hand in = to submit
- to drop in : to pay a short visit
- to turn into : to come across to find by chance
- cut down; reduce
- to keep up with: to move
- to bring up ( children) : to educate – to take care of
- to look for : to search
- to set up ( mules) : to establish
- to check in : to register ( information)
- to check up = consult a doctor
- Canyon: continue
- take up = start a hobby
- to take after : to resemble
- to back up = to support .